66 Social Media is Inherently a selfish medium."

Literally Social Media should mean media for society, serving the needs and aspirations of the people of society. But with time and space its core purpose has changed and now it is better used by people to serve self.

In the political sphere the politicians barely use social media for some information on policies or any gov work but better use it to crack lame jokes on opponents.

Even the Religious leaders today use it more for self promotion of them, their brand and less for ideology for which they are known.

Even if we say that social media is patriarchal we'd prove it wrong. It is used by the powerful sex via creep shots, revengeporn for taking back revenge.

very good opening line

hits the nail on the head

politicians use it for manipulation of voters as well

good

influence culture

No doubt at times the use of social media even for selfish purpose by known faces of the globe also motivates the followers to pinches them to adapt same habits and be the same, what Merton called as the, "Reference Group Theory".

So social Media has to offer a lot to us which depends on what the provider is providing and what the consumer aspires for. But, never it should promote hatred and crime and should always promote Morals, Ethics etc.

"Let the social Media be social and not political or religious."

what you have written is the introduction

discuss that in each dimension you have written about ~ 150 words each in the body

overall good to see you pick distinct and relevant dimensions
